

Are You a Child Support Payor Who Has Been Affected by COVID-19?

Champaign County Bar Association's Family Law Committee is sponsoring a pro bono program for child support obligors who have been affected by COVID-19, either by losing a job on a temporary basis or have been sick and quarantined with Coronavirus. Legal representation is available to individuals who need help to file a petition to modify child support.

Qualified persons include those who are at 125% of the federal poverty guidelines. Others may be eligible according to special circumstances.
